

ECKINGTON MANOR COOKERY SCHOOL

WINE TASTING EVENING

French Regional – The Rhone and the South of France

Friday 28th May 2010

Expand your wine knowledge and join us for an informative evening full of fun and laughter. Wine expert Liz Eyre will be hosting the event, sharing her passion for wine along with lots of amusing stories to bring the whole subject to life. Take a journey through the world of wines from this exciting area of France and enjoy an accompanying rustic supper.

"It's an all absorbing subject – there are always new stories, new angles and more to learn and new tastes to try" Liz Eyre

Liz Eyre BA, is passionate about wine, its provenance and the social history behind its production, she studied with the Wine and Spirit Education Trust and Institute of Master of Wine in the early 90's. During the last 18 years she cemented her knowledge by working as a feature writer for magazines and newspapers, lecturing for the Wine and Spirit Education Trust, the CIVB Bordeaux and CIVC Champagne and as a WSET examiner. She is an amusing after dinner speaker and lecturer.
